

Ancient World Breakfast Club

Autumn Term 2019

Date	Speaker	Title
6 September	Prof. Costas Panayotakis Glasgow University	The collection of Latin moral maxims associated with the mime-playwright Publilius
13 September	Prof. Patrick Finglass Bristol University	Editing Sappho's corpus: from the Renaissance to the present
20 September	Dr Susie White The Portable Antiquities Scheme	Buried in the Borderlands: finds from the Roman world recorded by the Portable Antiquities Scheme
27 September	Dr Nicolò Benzi University College, London	On ships and pastry chefs: Plato and the criticism of democracy
4 October	James Renshaw Godolphin and Latymer School	The battle of Thermopylae: how much can we really know?
11 October	Julian Bell Godolphin and Latymer School	Using words to change the world: Aristotle's Rhetoric in the 21st century
18 October	Dr Olivia Elder Sidney Sussex College, Cambridge	Urban Dictionary: Graffiti, Language and Culture in Pompeii and Rome
HALF TERM
HALF TERM
8 November	Lucy Hughes-Hallett Independent Scholar	Cleopatra: histories, dreams and distortions
15 November	Dr Matthew McCullagh St Paul's Girls School	Pets in the Ancient World
22 November	Michael Wright AWBC Member	A little Greek Mathematics, and the Delian Problem
29 November	Dr Shushma Malik University of Roehampton	Nero's Life after Death
6 December	AWBC Members	Io Saturnalia!