1. Introduction

- 1.1. The PSHE and Citizenship programme is an integral and important part of the education programme at our school. This programme aims to foster the personal, moral, spiritual, social and cultural development of our students, as well as helping to enhance their ability to cope with life and its demands. It aims to inspire and encourage our students to become kinder, more confident, more thoughtful and more responsible citizens in the communities in which they live and work.

2. PSHE

- 2.1. PSHE aims to help our students develop an increased understanding and knowledge of:
- Health issues: drugs, sex education, mental health, healthy lifestyle, and work/play balance;
 - Personal issues: goal setting, self-awareness, self-esteem, relationships, emotional well-being, safety and safeguarding;
 - Social issues: relationships including family, friends, workplace, teams, disabled people; and
 - Emotional literacy: supporting personal and social development by encouraging resilience, positive self-esteem and confidence. The moral and ethical aspects of issues are discussed to enable students to explore their own feelings and thoughts, as well as developing emotional empathy.

3. Citizenship

- 3.1. Citizenship education aims to develop an increasing awareness and a better understanding of:
- What constitutes British values of democracy, respect and tolerance for others, personal liberty and the law.
 - Personal finance and the notion of worth and value.
 - The Equality Act of 2010 and vulnerable groups in our society, with particular regard to the 'protected characteristics' listed in the Equality Act: age; disability; gender reassignment; marriage and civil partnership; pregnancy and maternity; race; religion or belief; sex; and sexual orientation.
 - Responsibility within the communities that our students interact with both on a smaller scale (such as family), as well as the larger scale (national and global issues).

- 3.2. See Appendix 1 for more details.

4. The Programme

- 4.1. PSHE and Citizenship teaching takes place both in designated 55 minute lessons and during the 25 minute form time. Time allocated specifically to PSHE within the timetable is as follows (see also Appendix 2 for more details of the content):

Year	Allocation of time to PSHE	PSHE taught by:
7	1x 55 minute lesson with whole form	Form Tutor or Assistant Form Tutor
8	1x 55 minute lesson in groups of 20/22 girls	PSHE teachers
9	1 x 25 minute lesson with whole form; Relationships and Sex Education (RSE) delivered in 1 x 55 minute lesson on an 8 week rotation.	Form Tutor; two specialist teachers for RSE

10	1x 55 minute lesson with whole form	PSHE teachers
11	1x 55 minute lesson in groups of 15/16 girls; rotation of modules on First Aid, Cultural Curiosity, mindfulness/yoga, and Relationships and Sex Education (RSE).	Specialist teachers
VI form	Sessions of Relationships and Sex Education, Drug and Alcohol Awareness, online safety, occasional sessions of mindfulness and managing stress positively; P.E.- includes yoga; Tuesday lecture programme, year group assemblies and form activities often supplement issues pertinent to PSHE	School nurse, visiting speakers, PE staff/specialists

- 4.2. A variety of teaching styles encourages the students to be active participants and interact with one another in the lessons as much as possible. Discussion is crucial and central to PSHE and Citizenship education.
- 4.3. Carefully chosen staff ensure the effective delivery of the programme; external speakers are invited into school to talk to girls about a number of issues such as safety, drugs, alcohol and sexual health.
- 4.4. Aspects of PSHE and Citizenship are also taught across the curriculum. Examples include:
- The effects of smoking in Biology
 - Fair Trade and sustainability in Geography
 - Prejudice and other social concerns in English
 - Ethics, value judgements and understanding/tolerance of other religions in Philosophy and Religion
 - Democracy, voting rights, women's suffrage, etc. in History.
- 4.5. The ethos of the school also reflects a focus on good citizenship and thinking of others. There is a strong emphasis on giving to those who are less fortunate through the activities organised by the Social Impact Committee.
- 4.6. In all year groups, participation in the democratic life of the school is carried out via the School Council. Representatives are elected from each year group. The Sustainability Committee promotes environmental awareness throughout the school and encourage a 'green' approach to travel, waste and consumerism.
- 4.7. The ability to work as a team and to take others' views into account is promoted through sport, the Duke of Edinburgh Award Scheme, cross-curricular days and many other curricular and extra-curricular activities. Courtesy and concern for others is a vital ingredient of school life, and indeed life outside school.
- 4.8. The Senior Deputy Head (Pastoral) is responsible for the programme as a whole: providing resources; supporting PSHE teachers; ensuring that they feel confident about the delivery of the programme. She is supported in this role by the Head of Year 11 who currently has a specific responsibility for PSHE. Meetings are held for those teaching PSHE in order to discuss progress and any issues arising from the course. The programme is assessed frequently to meet the needs of our young people in a fast moving and changing society.

5. Relationships and Sex Education (RSE)

- 5.1. PSHE is a statutory element of the curriculum and RSE has always been an integral part of our PSHE curriculum for all year groups. In September 2020, RSE became statutory for all pupils in secondary education, and there is a separate RSE Policy available to view. Parents have the right to withdraw their child from the sex education elements of RSE, up to and until three terms before their daughter turns 16. All other components relating to relationships education are compulsory.
- 5.2. The School's RSE programme aims to develop students' understanding of the topic in the following key areas:

Knowledge and understanding

- Learning and understanding physical development at appropriate stages.
- Understanding human sexuality, sexual health, emotions and relationships.
- Considering issues of consent.
- Understanding different aspects of sexuality.

Attitudes and values

- Discussing the importance of values and individual conscience and moral considerations.
- The understanding of the value of family life, and stable and loving relationships.
- Learning the value of respect, love and care.
- Exploring, considering and understanding moral dilemmas.
- Developing critical thinking as part of decision making.

Personal and social skills

- Learning to manage emotions and relationships confidently and sensitively.
- Developing self-respect and empathy for others.
- Learning to make choices based on an understanding of difference and with an absence of prejudice.
- Developing an appreciation of the consequences of choices made.
- Managing conflict.
- Learning how to recognise and avoid exploitation and toxic relationships.

6. Monitoring, assessment, reporting and evaluation

- 6.1. Staff are given an opportunity to reflect critically on delivery of the PSHE curriculum through dialogue with the Senior Deputy Head (Pastoral).
- 6.2. Students will have opportunities to review and reflect on their learning during lessons and other discussion activities. Student voice will be influential in adapting and amending planned learning activities.
- 6.3. The Senior Deputy Head (Pastoral) reports on PSHE provision to the Governors' Education Committee from time to time.
- 6.4. PSHE teachers report on pupil progress via comments in the student's annual written report. These comments may be included in a specific PSHE section of the report or be incorporated into the final form tutor comment.

- 6.5. PSHE teachers make use of a range of assessment techniques in lessons, including quizzes, questions/assignments on Google Classroom, written tasks and response to verbal questioning in class.
- 6.6. The School subjects its PSHE/RSE approach to external scrutiny. For example, from May to September 2022 It Happens conducted an external audit of PSHE and RSE at the School, as part of their PSHE support programme.
