

Ancient World Breakfast Club Programme: Autumn 2022

Date	Speaker	Title
9 September	Dr Caroline Spearing Exeter University	Stinkhorn: the Phallus Hadriani and a sixteenth-century Latin poem
16 September	Prof. Ingo Gildenhard King's College, Cambridge	Roman Justice
23 September	Dr John Taylor Manchester University	The Acts of the Apostles and the Classical World
30 September	James Renshaw Godolphin and Latymer School	Two Hellenistic cities: Alexandria and Pergamon
7 October	Prof. Polly Low Durham University	Gods, disease, inscriptions and aristocrats: the Athenian anatomical votives at the British Museum
14 October	Nefeli Pirée Iliou Lincoln College, Oxford	Roman agriculture in north-west Greece
21 October	Half Term
28 October	Half Term
4 November	Dr Robin Wormell AWBC member	Medicine in Ancient Greece and Rome
11 November	Prof. Judith Mossman Coventry University	Plutarch and Shakespeare
18 November	Prof. Roderick Beaton King's College, London	Herodotus Revisited: The Beginning of History and the Invention of Europe
25 November	Dr Rosie Wyles Kent University	Objectifying Loss: telling stories from Greek vases
2 December	Julian Bell Independent Scholar	The Rhetoric of Democracy: Pericles's Funeral Oration
9 December	Dr Kate Cook St Andrew's University	Women in Classical Video Games